

Pat O'Brien is executive director of the Milwaukee 7 (M7) regional economic development partnership and is responsible for all aspects of M7 regional economic development strategy and programming. Pat is also president of the Milwaukee Development Corporation (MDC), a catalytic community based real estate and business development organization. Pat spent 20 years with Trammell Crow Company in Houston, Detroit and Milwaukee, managing its operations and development business. He currently serves as president of Athletes for Youth, and serves on the boards of the Pettit National Ice Center Foundation, Menomonee Valley Partners, 30th Street Industrial Corridor, Elmbrook Baseball Association and Elmbrook Little League. Pat earned his bachelor's degree in history from Yale University and his law degree from the University of Virginia Law School.